How to find information in JOGU-StINe, the electronic course listings at Johannes Gutenberg-University Mainz go to: http://jogustine.uni-mainz.de/

Select 'Vorlesungen' to access the course list.

You do not need to log in to access the course listings, but a log-in is necessary to register for courses. This log-in is only available after matriculation at our university.

Select the appropriate semester in the upper left-hand margin. If the semester you wish to apply for is not yet listed, choose the appropriate semester of the previous year.

🍠 Start 🎓 🕞 🕑 👔 Solution Menu 🛛 🕲 Johannes Gutenb... 🔛 Total Commander 7.... 🛛 😥 Wacker, Petra Angel... 💧 Spider 💮 JooGuSLINe-Startset... 🔂 ECTS-Link - Nachrich... 🛛 🖉 🛪 🖙 🖓 🏹 🖓

Now you can select the appropriate field of studies:

- 01 Catholic and Protestant Theology
- 02 Social Sciences, Media Sciences, and Physical Education
- 03 Law and Economics
- 04 Medicine
- 05 Philosophy, Modern Philologies, Theater Studies, Book Science
- 06 Translation & Interpretation (Germersheim campus)
- 07 History and Cultural Studies
- 08 Physics, Math, and Computer Sciences
- 09 Chemistry, Pharmaceutics, and Geology
- 10 Biology
- 11 Music and Applied Arts

Types of Classes:

Vorlesung	lecture course	Lecture courses serve to provide overviews over a subject matter in support of more detailed topics of regular classes.
Proseminar	undergraduate seminar	Proseminars are classes with introductory character. Regular attendance is mandatory.
(Haupt)- Seminar	intermediate-level seminar	Seminars are more advanced classes which require certain prerequisites.
Übung	course	Übungen are practically oriented classes.
Praktikum	practical or laboratory course	Interships are complementary courses to theoretical classes. In the natural sciences, they are laboratory courses
Oberseminar/ Kolloquium	advanced graduate course	Oberseminars are classes for advanced graduate students who are preparing for their master's thesis.

Please note that this is a selective list of course types which are most applicable to exchange students. If you have further questions, please don't hesitate to ask!